

Timeless Melodies

Frank Sinatra: Part II

Tuesday, September 6 1:30 - 2:30 pm #14319

In Part II of Timeless Melodies' salute to America's greatest troubadour, music historian Larry Maurer presents Sinatra's most challenging years, as the war ends and he loses his audience. Sinatra made a triumphant comeback with an Oscar in "From Here to Eternity" and, with Nelson Riddle, developed the sound that won him international fame in nightclubs, Las Vegas, the Rat Pack, and Hollywood.

Salute to Veterans - Patriotic Songs

Tuesday, November 1 1:30 - 2:30 pm #14320

Join Timeless Melodies in a special Veterans Day tribute-in-song to the American heroes who sacrificed their lives to create the world's greatest democracy. "Yankee Doodle," "The Star-Spangled Banner," "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," "America the Beautiful," "God Bless America," and more! These songs represent our national heritage. Join us in this special tribute to our American veterans, as we relive the history, music, and legendary tales founded a great nation.
